MEMORIAM

On April 10, 1975, Robert E. Ripley died. He died in a freak motorcycle accident. Those of us who knew Bob will miss him. Those of us who didn't know him, wish now we had found the time to.

Bob was a senior at Vinson and the students here wish to show their respect by dedicating this page to his memory.

I WILL NEVER PASS THIS WAY AGAIN

*I will pass this way but once.
If there's any good I can do, Let me do it now,
For I'll never pass this way again.*

*I will see this day but once.
If there's any kindness I can show,
Let me show it now,
For I'll never see this day again.*

*Tomorrow may be too late, my friend,
To do all the good that you planned.
So reach out to those who need you
And lend them a helping hand.*

*I will know this world but once.
If there's any love that I can give
Let me give it now.
Oh Lord, please show me how.*

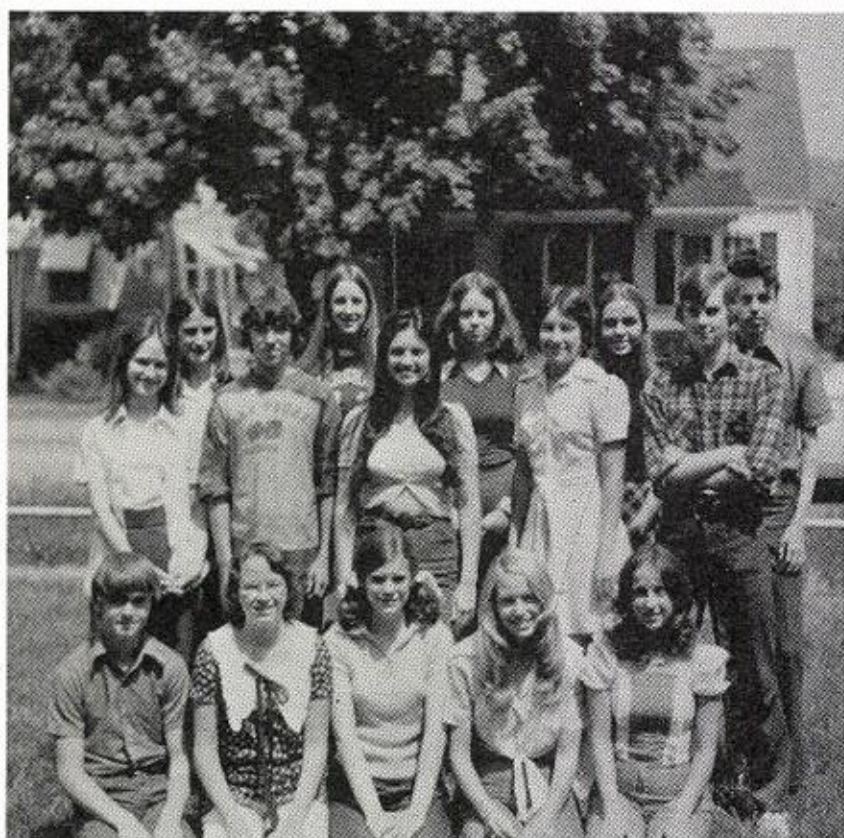

*For I'll never know this world,
I'll never see this day,
I'll never pass this way again.*

CLUBS PROMOTE MANY ACTIVITIES

A FRIEND

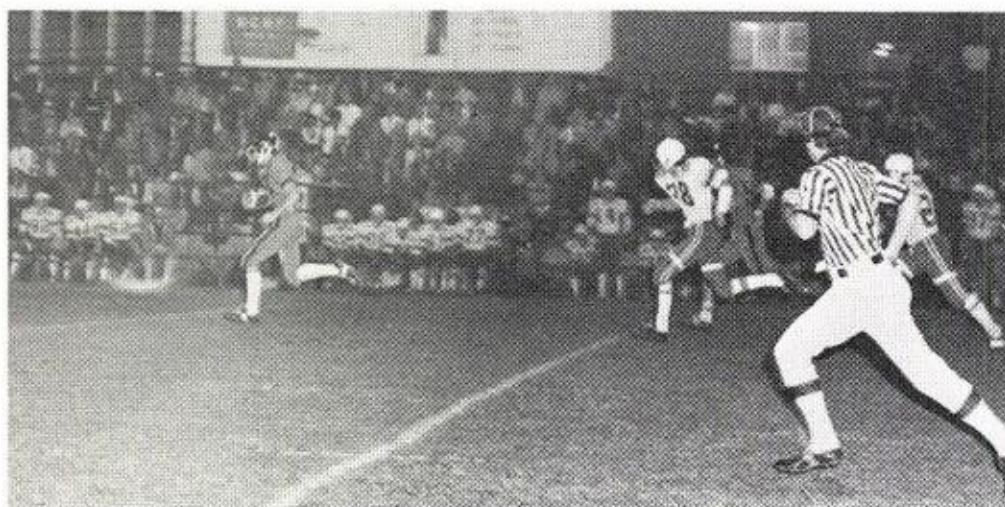

What is a friend? I'll tell you. It is a person with whom you dare to be yourself.
 Your soul can go naked with him. He seems to ask you to put on nothing.
 Only to be what you really are. He does not want you to be better or worse.
 When you are with him, you feel as a prisoner feels who has been declared innocent.
 You do not have to be on guard. You can say what you think, so long as it is genuinely you.
 He understands those contradictions in your nature that cause others to misjudge you.
 With him you breathe free—you can avow your little vanities and envies and hates and vicious sparks, your meannesses and absurdities, and in opening them up to him they are lost, dissolved on the white ocean of his loyalty.
 He understands—you do not have to be careful. You can abuse him, neglect him, tolerate him—Best of all, you can keep still with him—It makes no difference. He loves you. He is like fire that purges all you do.
 He is like water that cleanses all you say.
 He understands—You can weep with him, laugh with him—pray with him—Through and underneath it all he sees, knows, and loves you.
 A friend, I repeat, is one with whom you dare to be yourself.

 Another prom is here
 To some this brings a joyous smile
 To others, brings a tear
 For four years you have tread a path

 But now the path gets steeper
 And the climb is just begun.
 We're very glad to know you
 We'll miss you when you've gone
 And to the class of '75
 We dedicate our Prom.

Below are the office assistants, who deliver messages and run other such errands for the administration.

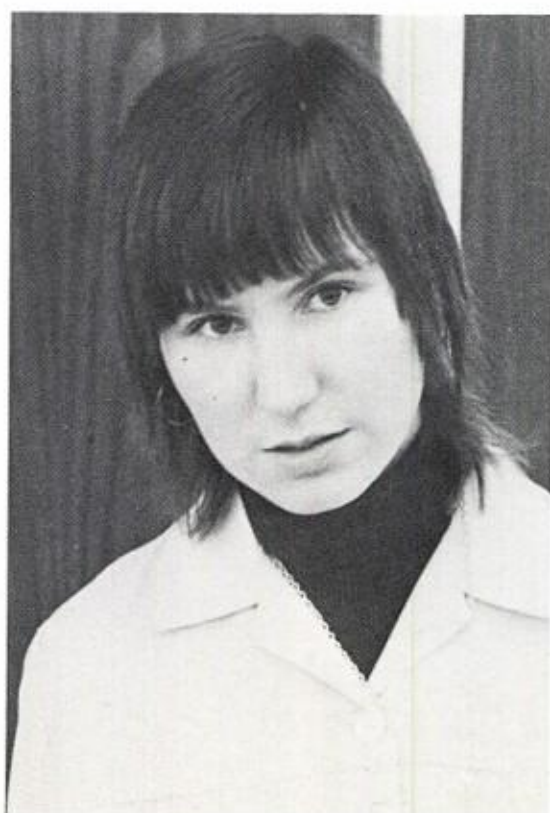

GUIDANCE

LIBRARY

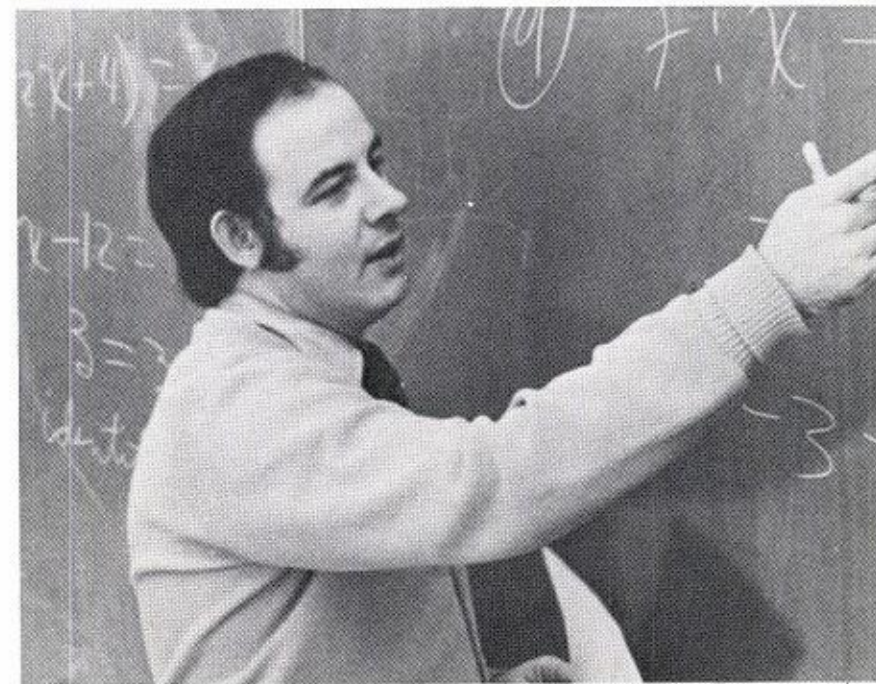

Mrs. Donna Miller (left) sees that the library is in order so that many students may use it in their school work. Being school librarian is a much bigger job than most people think, and she fulfills her duties well. The assistants (right) help her with small jobs around the library.

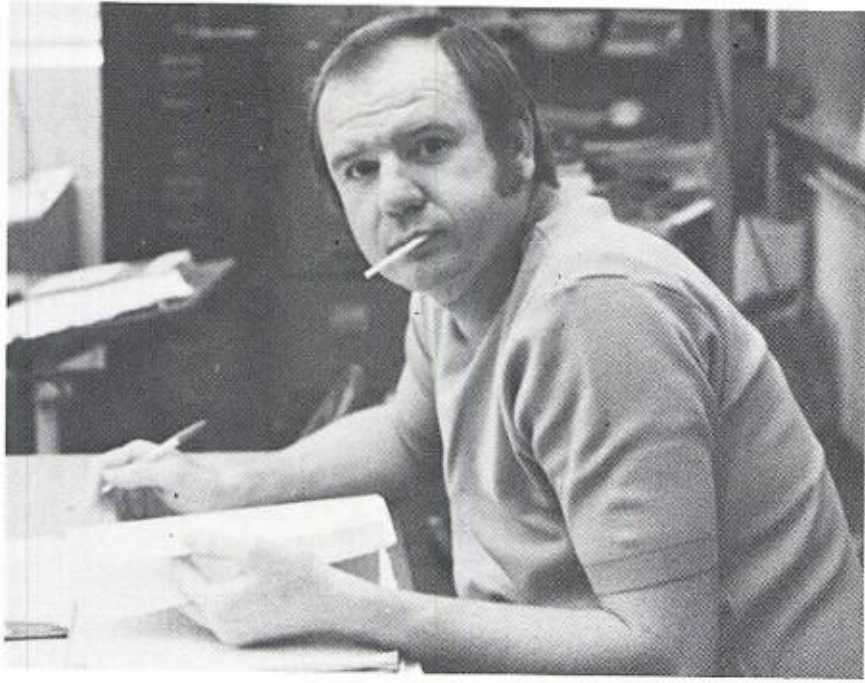

MATH

Mr. Mike Fullerton (top left) and Mr. Luther Wallace (top right) teach general math classes. Mrs. Williams (center left), who teaches Algebra, and Miss Martha McVey (bottom left) who teaches Algebra and Geometry, deal with the higher mathematics. Mr. Phil Lucas (bottom right) attempts to get the Seniors to understand Physics and Trigonometry.

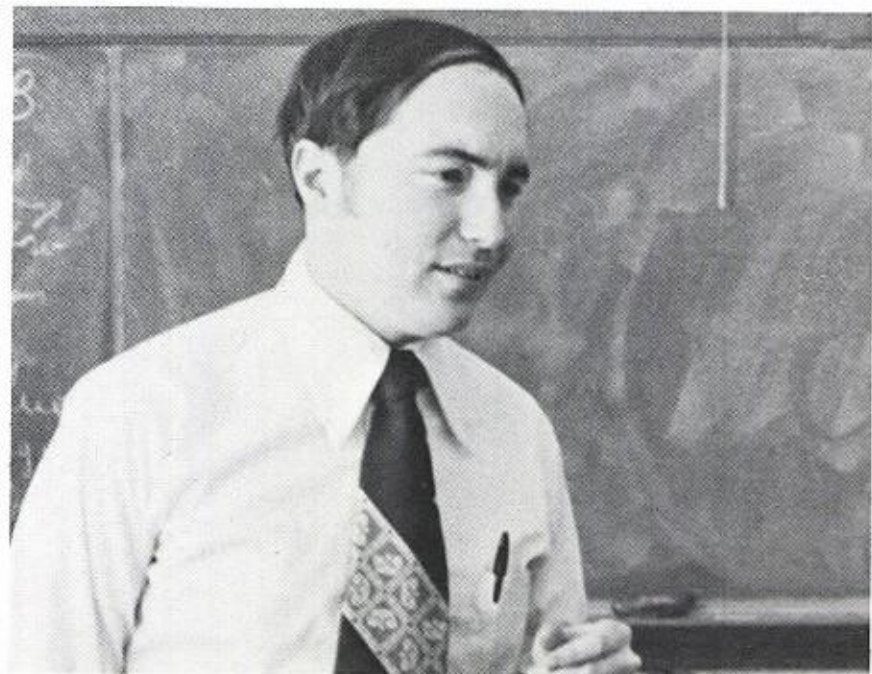

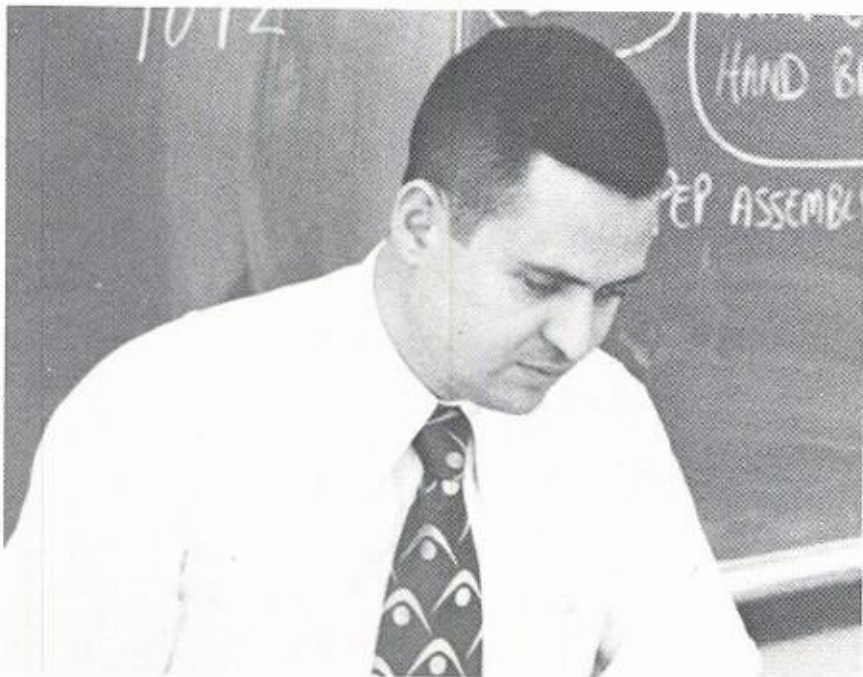

SCIENCE

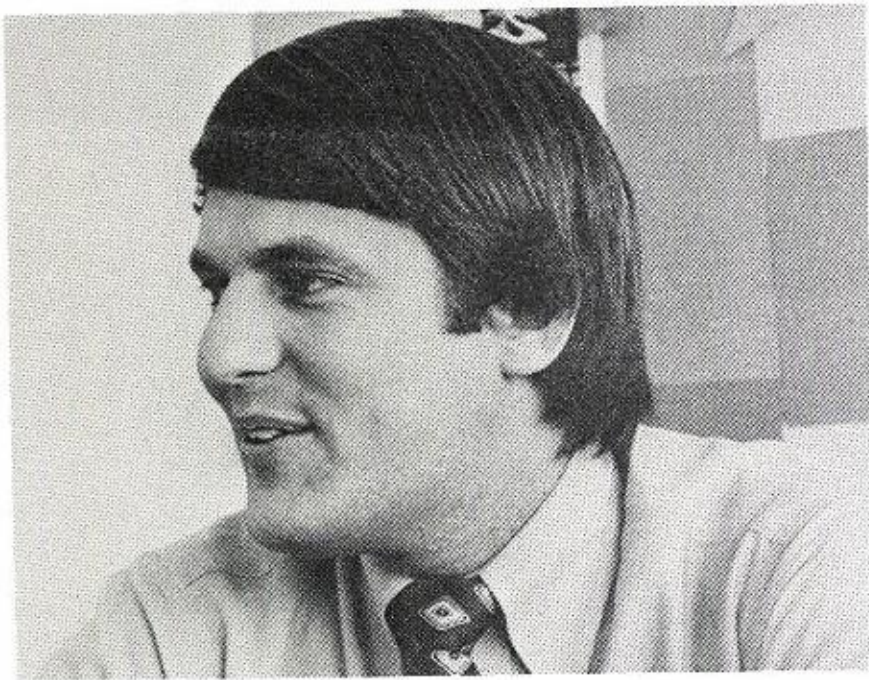

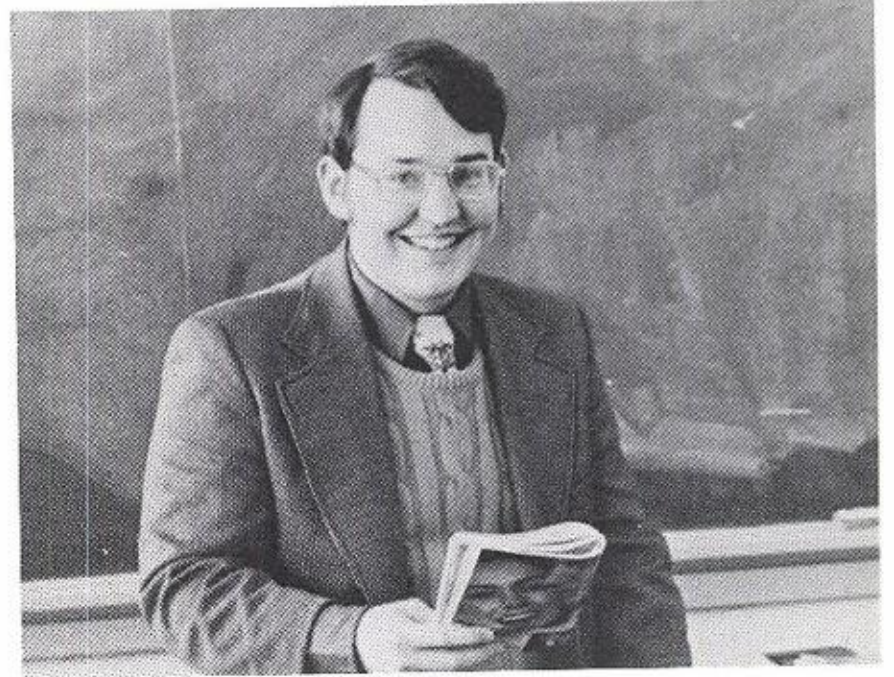

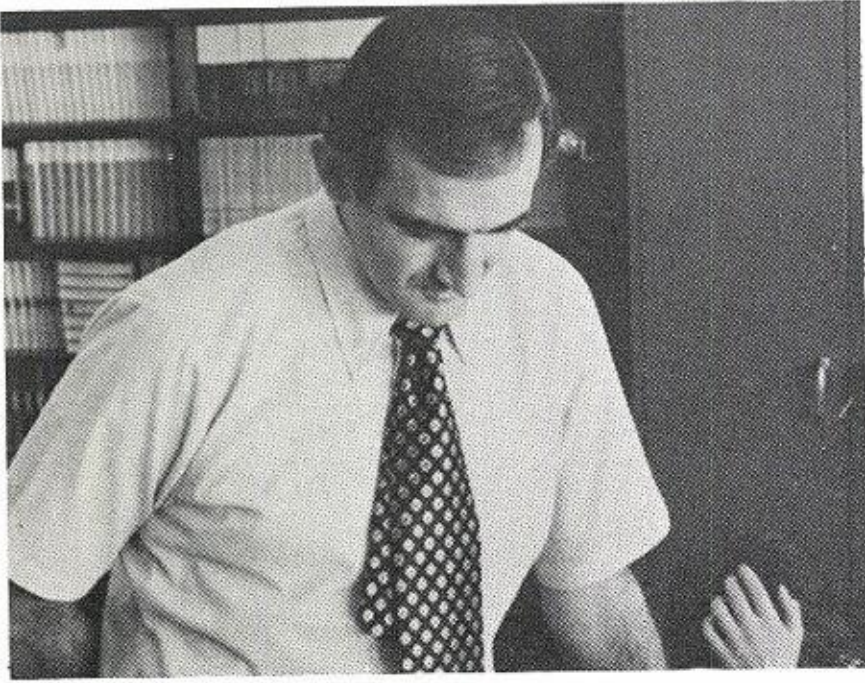

Mr. Don Smith (top left) and Mr. Charles Wellman (top right) teach general science. Mrs. Karen Talbert (center right) puts up with squeamish girls during dissection in Biology while Mr. Arthur Fuller (bottom right) teaches the principles of Physiology. What is that strange odor in the halls? The Chemistry class strikes again. While there is nothing Mr. Richard Hodge (bottom left) can do about that, he does manage to keep the school from being blown up.

ENGLISH

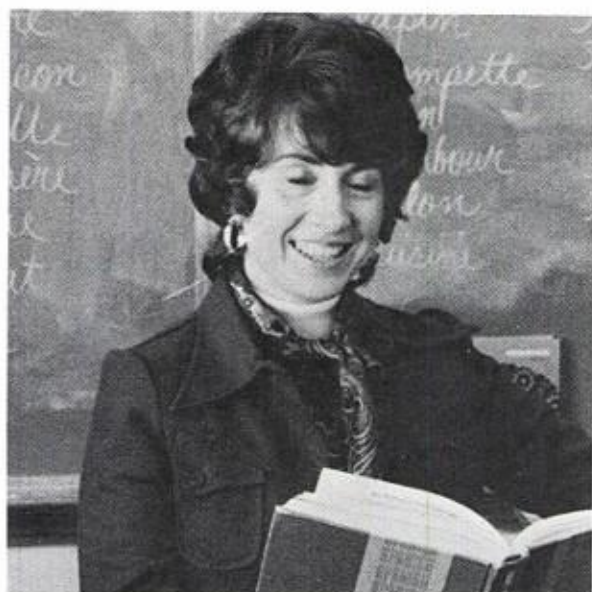

Mr. John Griffin (top left), Mr. Kent Williams (top right), Mr. Gary Norris (center left), Mrs. Ventrú Pelfrey (bottom left), and Miss Donna Riggs (bottom right) constitute the English Department of Vinson. They teach the fundamentals and structure of English grammar and spice up the year with literature.

LANGUAGE

Our Spanish teacher is Senora Ruthford (left). She projects her knowledge and fluent Spanish—speaking to her students. Mrs. Elizabeth Fullerton (right) brought to Vinson a new language—French. She also teaches Speech to those who want experience in public speaking.

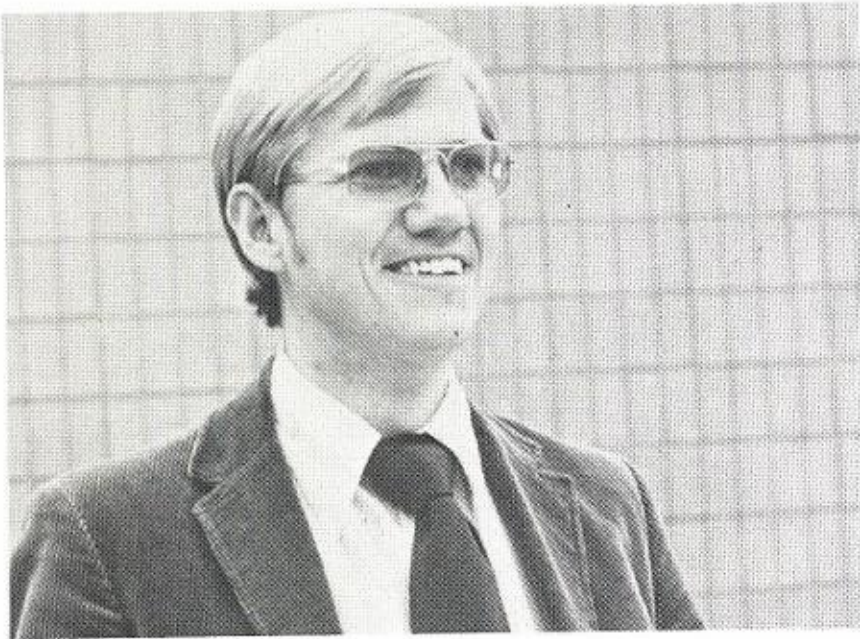

SOCIAL STUDIES

Mr. James Case (top right), Mr. Thomas Gibbs (center right), and Mrs. Carol McCallister (bottom right) teach general Social Studies and Freshman and Sophomore American Studies. Mrs. Deborah Demmler (top left) teaches World Cultures and also devotes much of her time to the Yearbook.

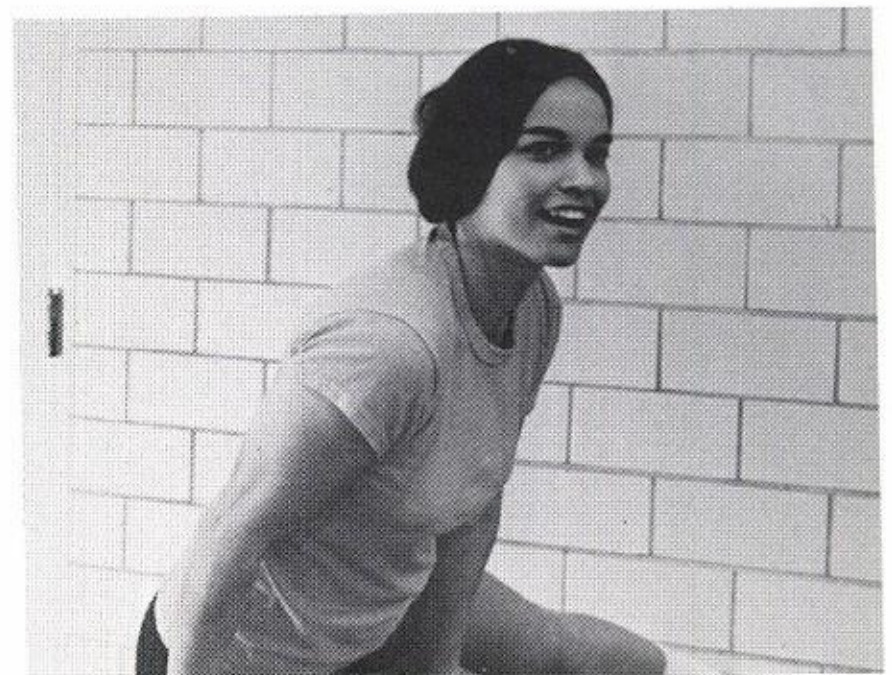

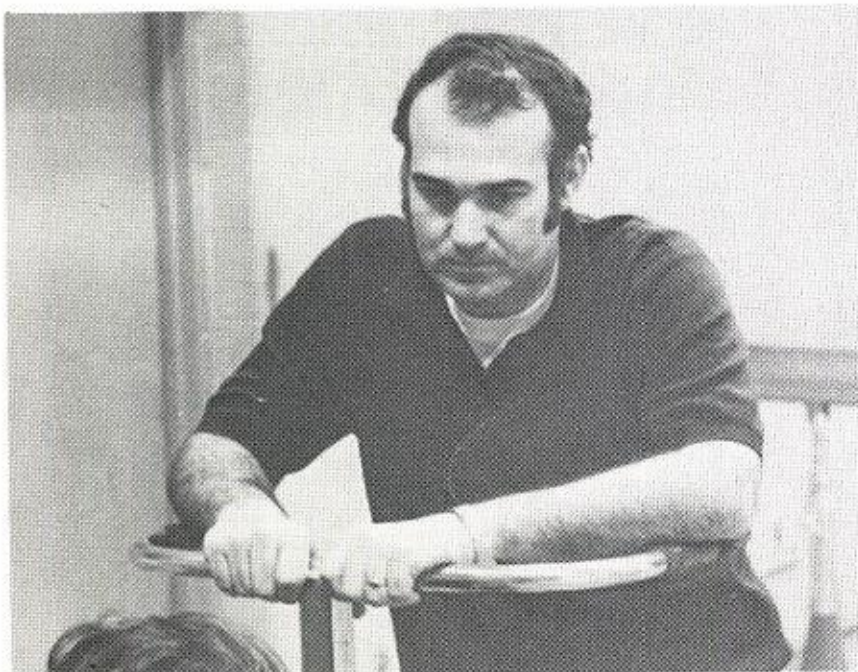

ART AND MUSIC

The art and music departments work together to expand and refine the talents of the students. Mrs. Trilby Lynch (top right) leads the Glee Club in many assemblies and special activities. Mr. Roy Webb (top left) directs the band all through marching and concert seasons and in many contests. Mr. Bill Long (center left) is director of our fine arts department.

The physical education department is headed by Mr. Ivan McGlone (bottom left), who works with the boys, and Mrs. Joanne Jackson (bottom right) who works with the girls.

PHYSICAL EDUCATION

BUSINESS

There are many subjects to choose from in the business department. Mrs. Fredda Salmons (top left) teaches Bookkeeping I and II and Typing. Carol Hannah (top right) teaches Shorthand I and Office Machines and also teaches English. Mrs. Helen Lafferty (center right) teaches Typing, Office Machines, and General Business.

HOME ECONOMICS

SPECIAL

Mrs. Elizabeth Six (right) teaches special classes here at Vinson. She teaches remedial reading and basic education to those with learning disabilities.

Education is . . .

I am not a teacher, but an awakener.
Robert Frost

In the afternoon one may look in the parking lot and find a student frantically trying to get a car in the space between two barrels. He finally manages with the help of Mr. Adrian Sullivan, (right) the Driver Education Instructor. He teaches his students road laws, behind-the-wheel training, and how to utilize common sense while driving. He also teaches Latin.

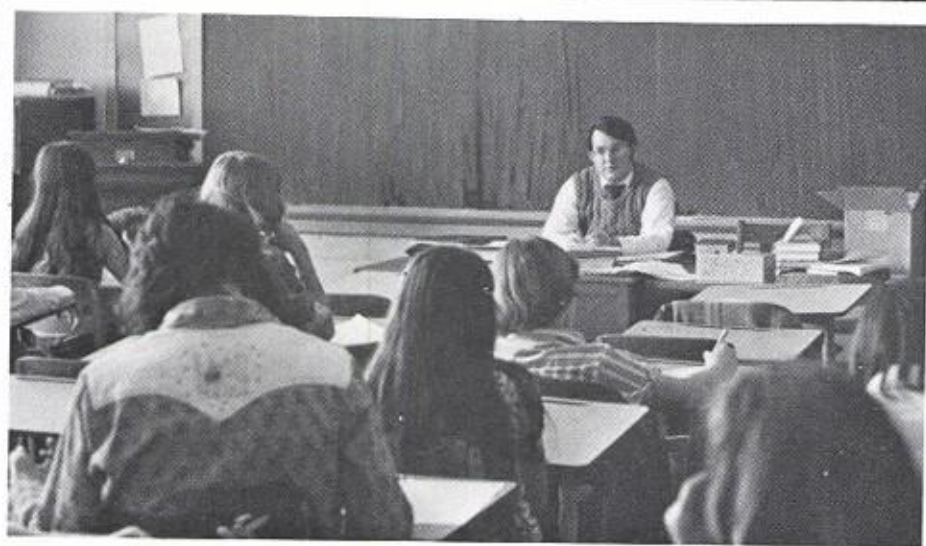

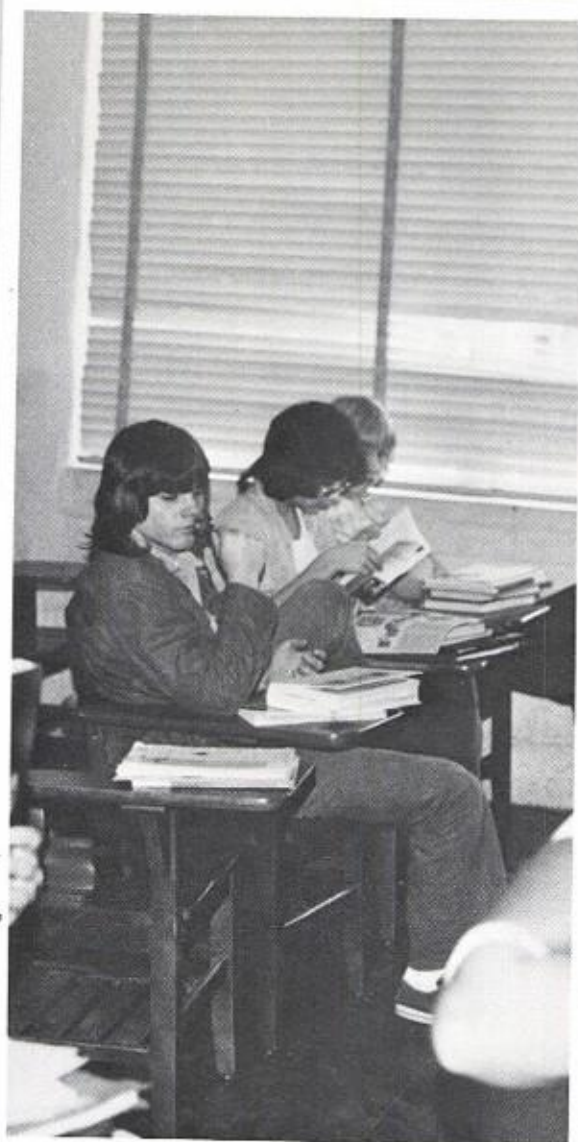

The secret of education lies in respecting the pupil.
Ralph Waldo Emerson

Miss Peggy Byard (right), who teaches Social Studies has brought Mass Communications to Vinson. Her students learn the basics of television, radio, newspaper, and movie business. The Tiger Tales Staff is very appreciative of her efforts as their sponsor.

The great difficulty in education is to get experience out of ideas.
George Santayana

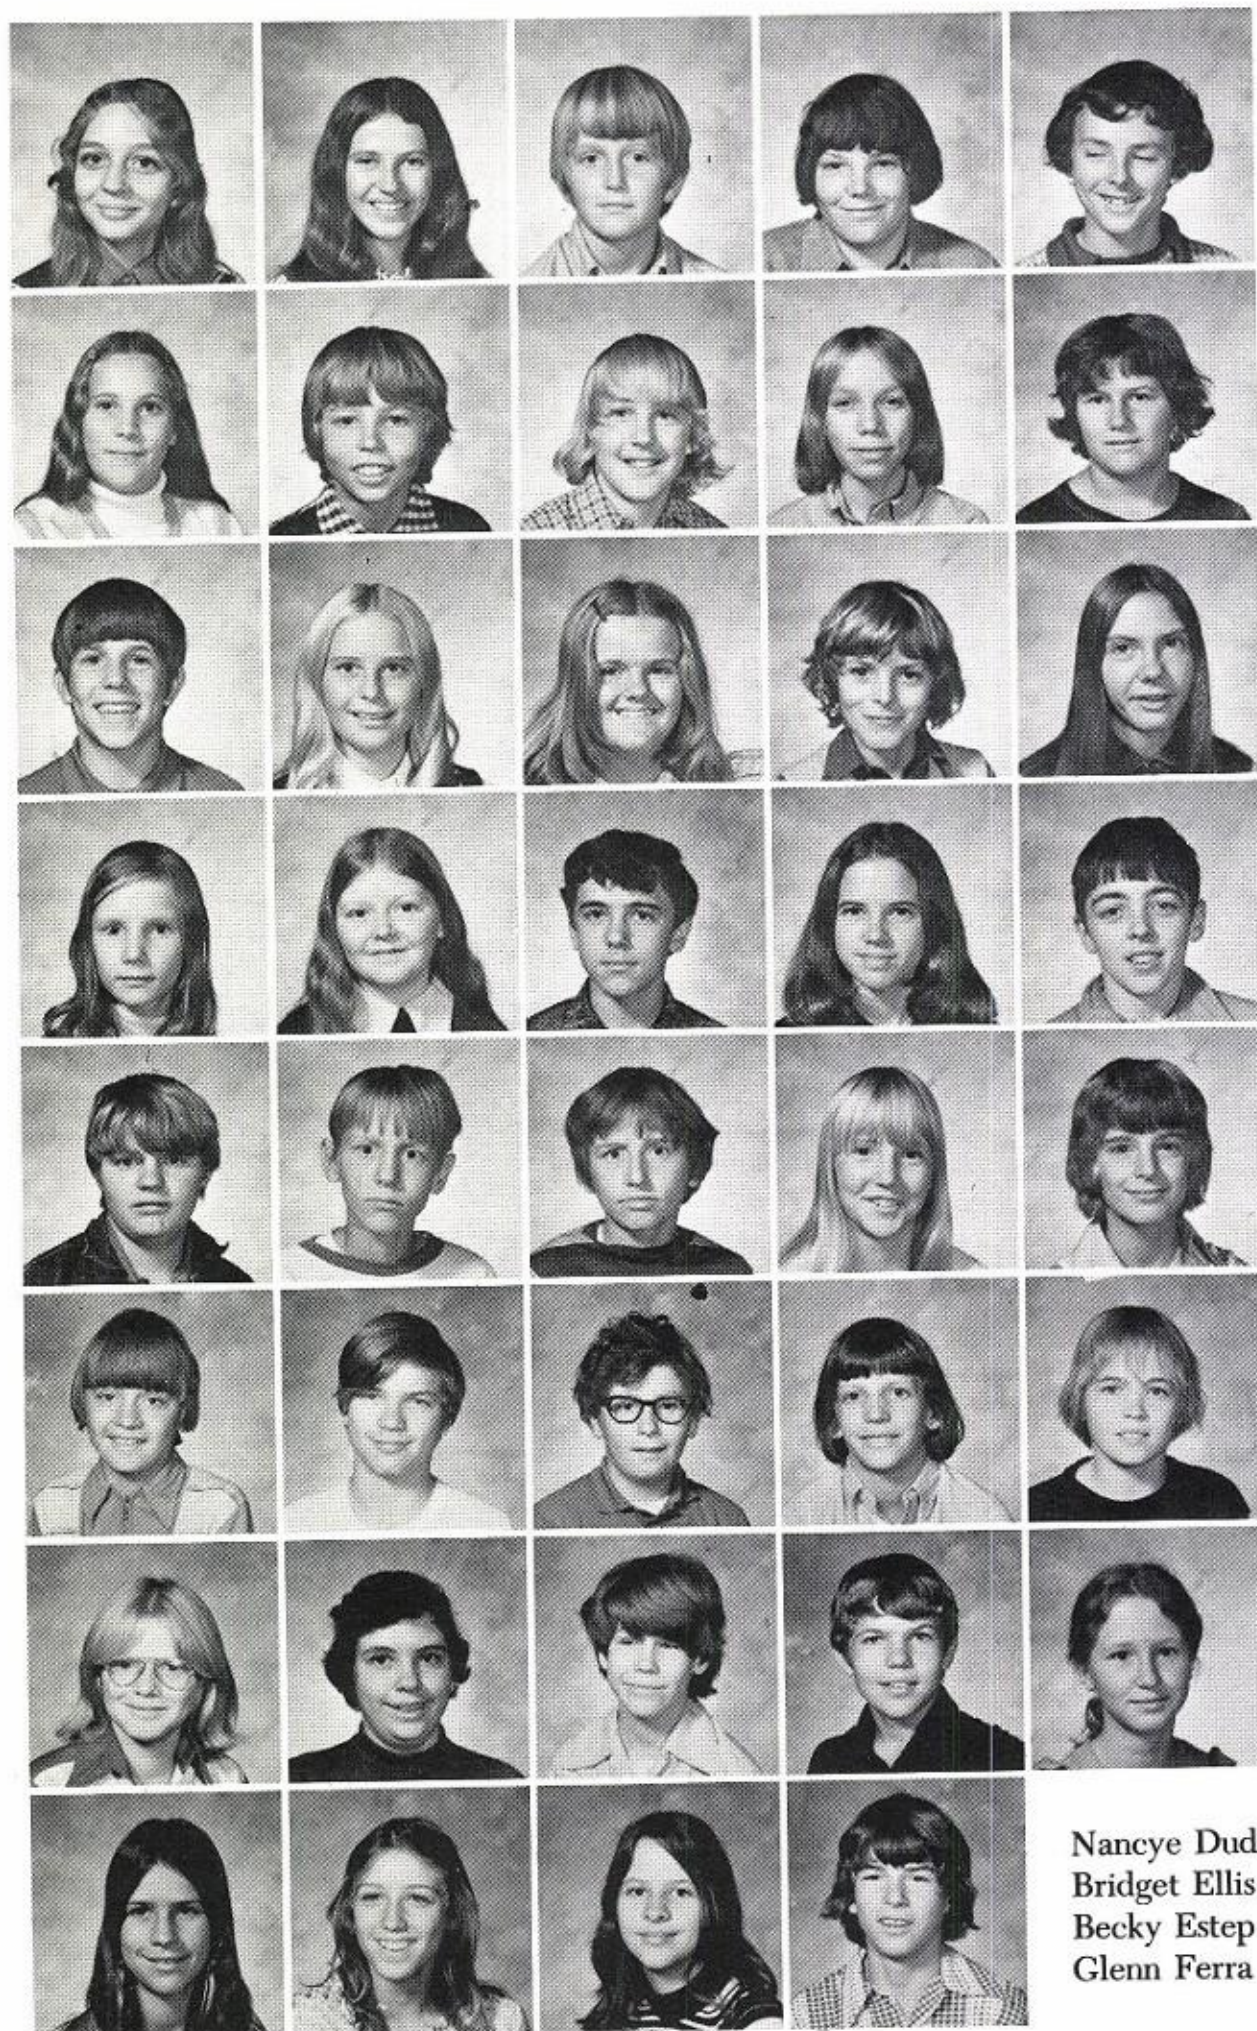

Knowledge is Life with Wings.

SUPERIOR SENIORS

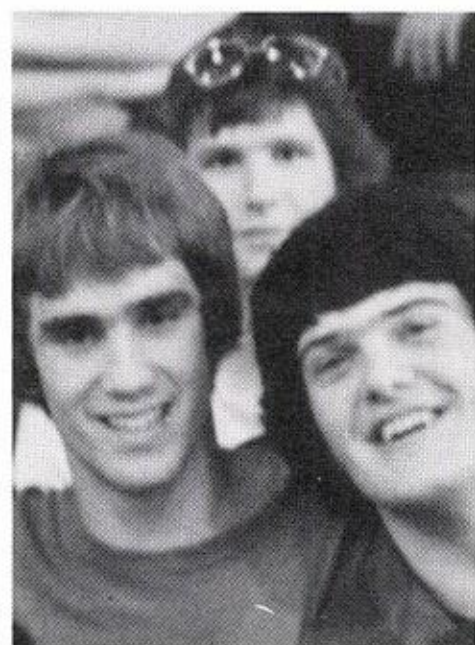

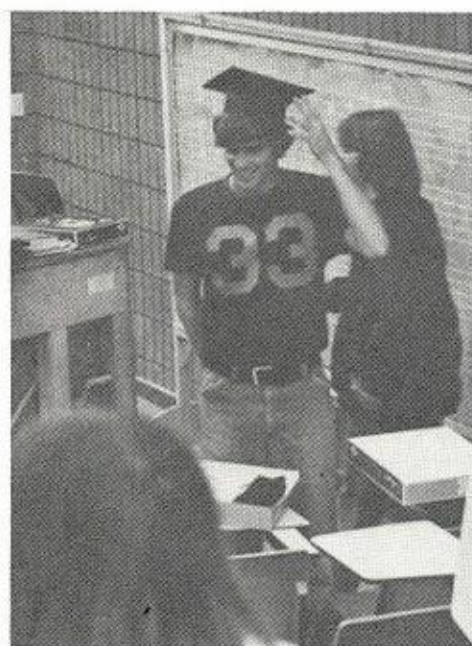

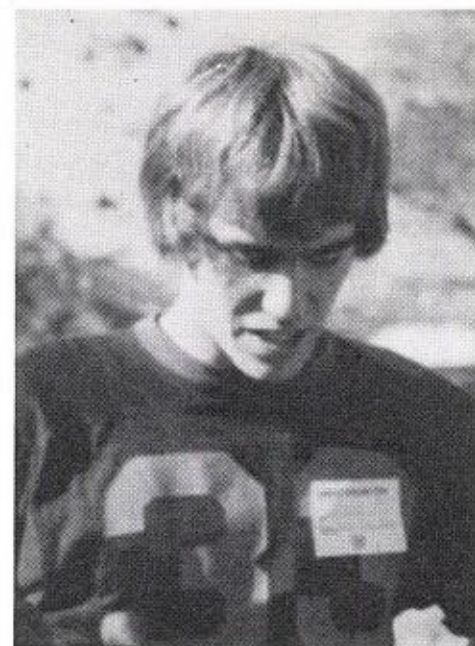

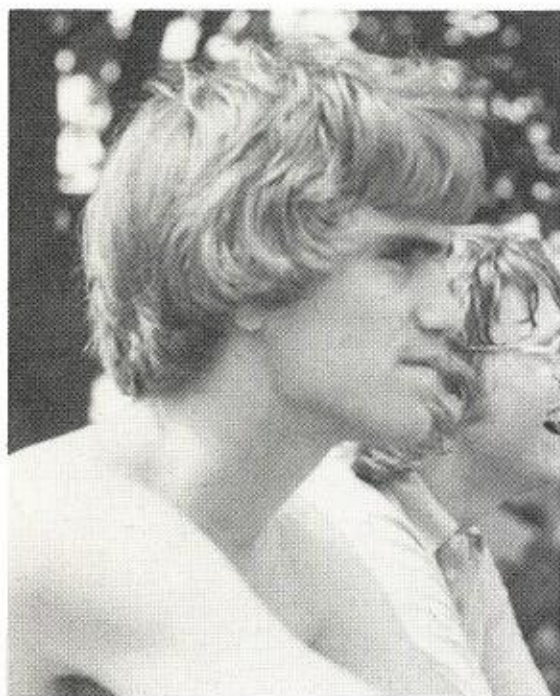

VINSON FAMILY SERVICE

This year the faculty voted Ronnie Rice the Vinson Family Award. This award is most important as it includes service of the community, churches, and school activities. It is based on the character, leadership and service in memory of Mary Vinson Clark. Ronnie could always be depended on to give up his time to help out around the school. He was school electrician, I.T.V. director and worked with other audio visual aids. He also did such things as help with the football team and work on the yearbook staff.

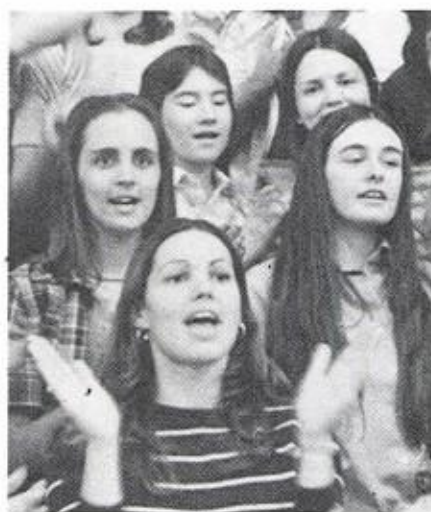

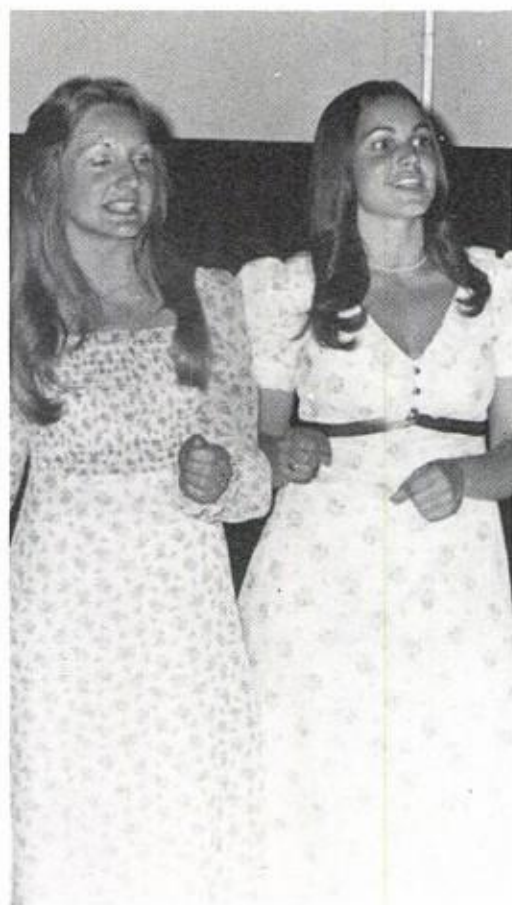

MR. VINSONIAN

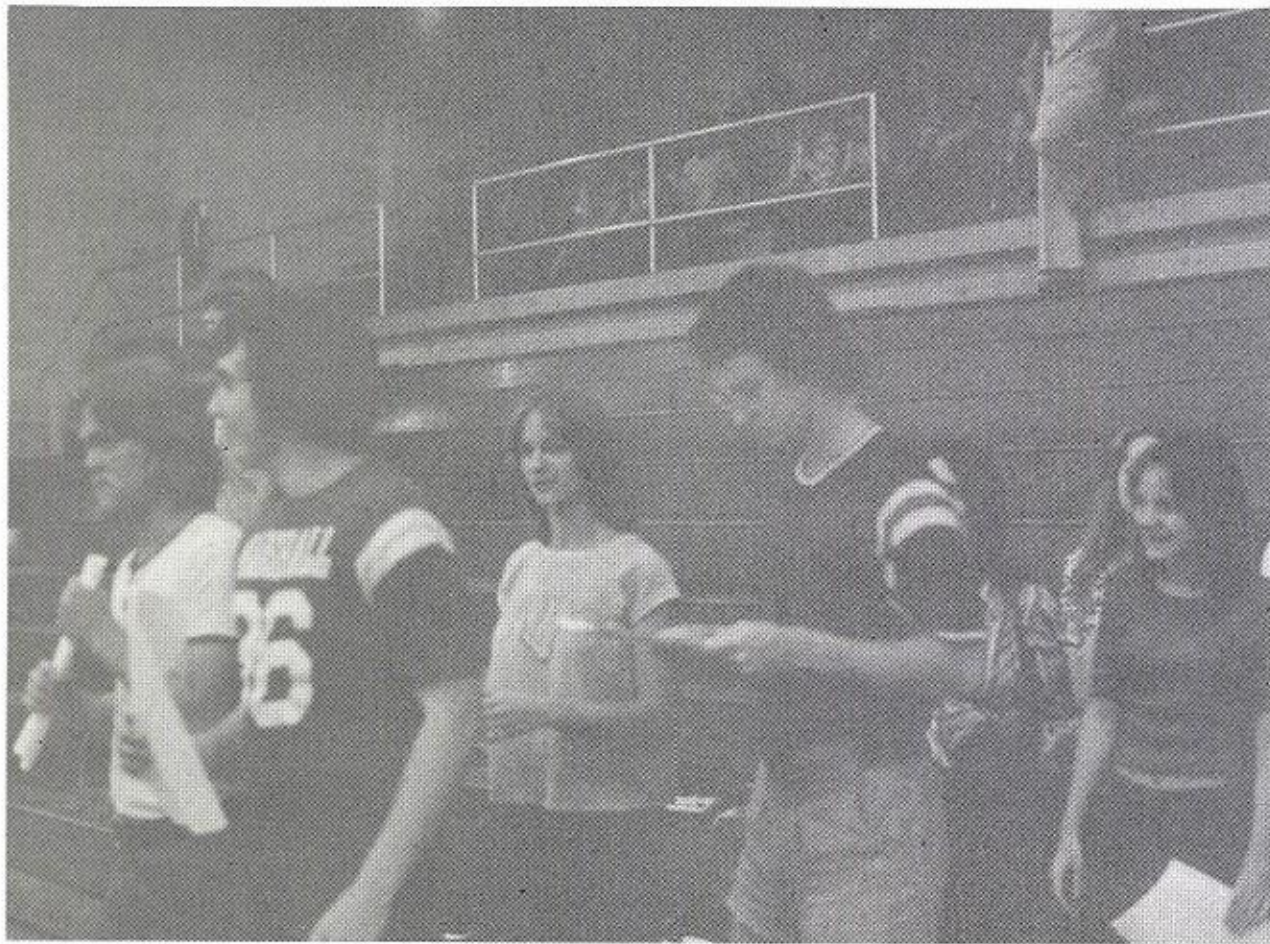

Joe Evans was noted for his leadership and school spirit. He played on the basketball team 3 years; his senior year he was All-WAC and captain of the team. He was also on the tennis team 3 years. He was a Midget League Coach 3 years for both football and basketball. Joe was a member of Mu Alpha Theta and the National Honor Society and took bachelor's cooking. His junior year he was Week in Washington winner. He maintained a 4.0 grade average all through high school.

MISS VINSONIAN

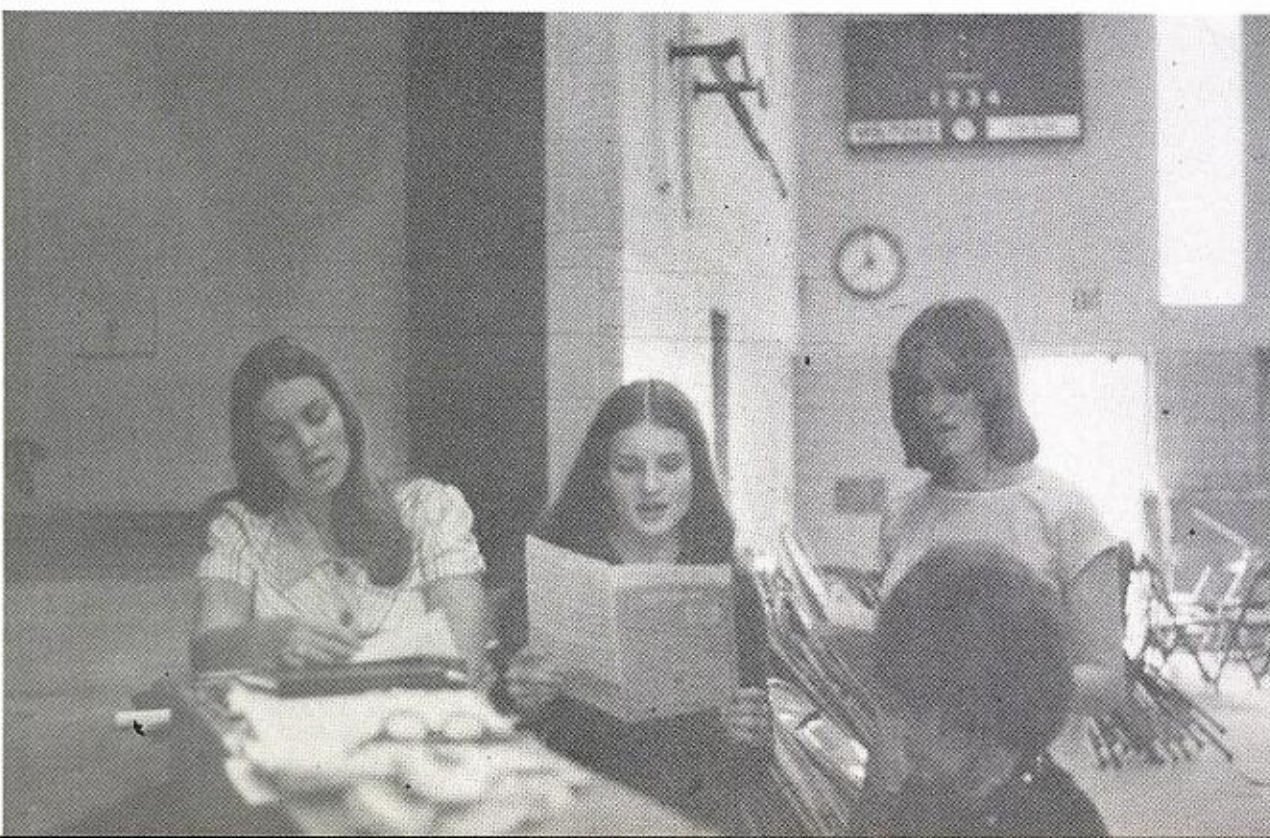

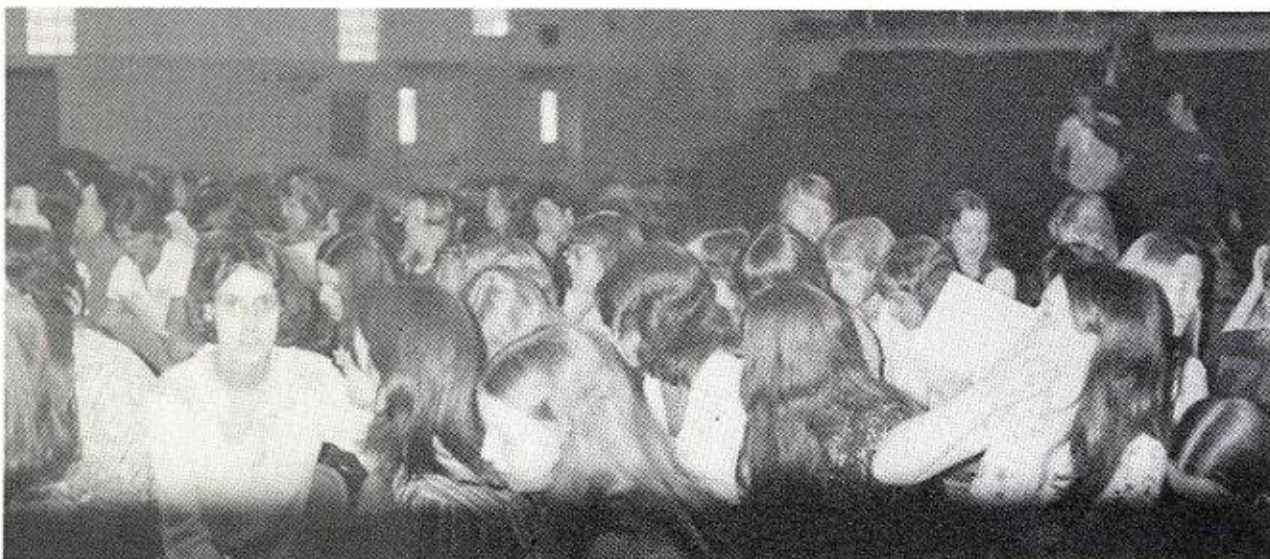

Jennifer Tardy has been very active in school activities during her high school years. She was both junior high and senior high cheerleader and captain her senior year. She was a member of many clubs including National Honor Society and attended Girls' State
